- Provide educational opportunities for parents to learn about additional ways to support their child and to advocate more effectively.
- Work collaboratively with the school district to improve educational outcomes for students with disabilities.

Tantasqua/Union 61 School Districts Special Education Parent Advisory Council (Union61SEPAC)

An important liaison for the schools in communicating with the parents of students with disabilities is the Tantasqua/Union 61 School Districts Special Education Parent Advisory Council (Union61SEPAC). Tantasqua/Union 61 School District's SEPAC takes the role of:

- Acting as liaison among the school, parents, and the community in general
- Advocating for children with special needs and performs in an advisory role relative to special education issues
- Educating, informing, and supporting parents about issues and topics which affect them and their children

Union61SEPAC is founded on special education regulations in Massachusetts which require each community to establish a parent advisory council to advise the administration and school committee about special education matters and work collaboratively with the school system to provide programs of interest and benefit to parents of children with special needs
